S. 28

Four Corners Interpretive Center Act

As cleared by the Congress on November 18, 1999

S. 28 would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to establish the Four Corners Interpretive Center to commemorate the Four Corners Monument, located where the boundaries of Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah meet. The interpretive center would be built on land made available by the Navajo Nation or the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe within Four Corners Monument Tribal Park. The act would authorize the Secretary to accept donations from private or public entities for planning, building, and operating the interpretive center. Because enacting S. 28 could affect direct spending and governmental receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would apply, but CBO estimates that any such effects would be insignificant.

The CBO staff contact is Megan Carroll. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
